HYMN 571 “Trust and Obey” (1,2) Congregation

ANTHEM “I Will Still Trust in You” Choir & Orchestra
[Sarah Britt, soloist]

If I lose it all tomorrow, if there’s nothing I can do;
If I have one breath inside of me, I will still trust in You.

If my dearest friends forsake me, if my heart is torn in two;
If I’m left alone to face this world, I will still trust in You.

Let the mountains crumble, the sea turn to dust;
Let the sun and the stars fade from view;
Let the world say I’m foolish, but still I will trust
For Father, You’ve proven You’re forever faithful and true.
So, I will still trust in You.

When my days on earth have ended and my struggle here is through;
When I slip into what lies beyond, I will still trust in You.

Let the mountains crumble, the sea turn to dust;
Let the sun and the stars fade from view;
Let the world say I’m foolish, but still I will trust
For Father, You’ve proven You’re forever faithful and true.
So, I will still trust in You.
